ABOUT US

With a proud legacy of over 56 years, SHT Group has become one of India's most trusted names in the hardware and industrial supply industry. What started as a humble venture has now grown into a nationwide network, serving 13,000+ businesses across 600+ cities.

We specialize in delivering 250+ product categories—from fasteners, castors, and hand tools to high-performance power tools and hardware essentials. Our catalogue features 57+ top national and international brands, ensuring that our customers get only the most durable, reliable, and quality-tested products in the market.

At SHT, we don't just supply products—we deliver partnership, support, and consistency. Whether you're a wholesaler, retailer, contractor, or industrial buyer, we're here to simplify your sourcing process and strengthen your business.

Join the thousands who trust SHT Group for their hardware needs—and experience legacy, variety, and reliability, all under one roof.
